

SAJOG

June 2022
Vol. 28 No. 1

THE SOUTH AFRICAN JOURNAL OF OBSTETRICS AND GYNAECOLOGY

- Provision of postpartum long acting reversible contraception
- Safe caesarean sections in South Africa: Is internship training sufficient?
- A comparison of malignant histopathological diagnoses on uterine curettings and hysterectomy specimens
- Maternal experiences of care following a stillbirth at Steve Biko Academic Hospital, Pretoria, South Africa
- Concurrent chemo-radiation induced renal and haematological toxicities in patients with invasive cervical cancer undergoing treatment
- Bicornuate uterus with second trimester fetal demise in a rudimentary horn

	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July
Psoitis patients managed according to standards (%)	29	49	40	47	41	51	67
Haemorrhage patients managed according to standards (%)	28	33	26	20	29	30	61
Sepsis patients managed according to standards (%)	0	27	33	9	9	10	71

